A Double Murder by a Richmond

Man. Sr. Louis, August 14 .- A cold-blooded and most atrocious double murder was committed here to-night. Thaddeus Baber, plumber, who keeps a small shop corner of Sixth and Poplar streets, and who lives with his family, consisting of his wife, a ittle boy about seven years old, and the wife's mother, an old German woman named Schondler, at 817 south Fourth street, quarrelled with his wife four or five days ago, and left home about half-past 7 clock to-night. He returned, stepped into the house, and while his mother-in-law sat reading and his wife was lying on the bed in the same room, he fired a bullet into Mrs. Schondler's brain, killing ber almost instantly, and shot his wife through the left breast, inflicting a mortal wound. He then left the house, but was arrested a few minutes later and locked up. Mrs. Baber, who was very weak from the effects of the injury she received, was extremely reticent and would give no particulars of the affair or tell what the quarrel between her and her husband was about. She was sent to the bospital. Baber has made a statement since his ar-
